Form No. GC 566 (revised 2011)

May be completed on enrolment or when special religious instruction is introduced into the school.

SPECIAL RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION

Special religious instruction in Government schools is authorised under section 2.2.11 of the Education and Training Reform Act 2006 and can be given only where accredited and approved religious instructors are available.

In general, special religious instruction in schools is provided through the non-denominational agreed Christian syllabus Religion in Life® which was developed and is regularly reviewed by ACCESS Ministries (formerly known as the Council for Christian Education in Schools). The agreed Christian syllabus is delivered by instructors drawn from the major churches including Anglican, Catholic, Protestant and Pentecostal who are trained and accredited by ACCESS Ministries and approved by the Minister for Education.

The agreed Christian syllabus Religion in Life®

- complements lesson themes and current Departmental policy
- builds on the Victorian Essential Learning Standards as they relate to the physical, personal and social learning strand
- helps children explore their own lives for meaning and purpose
- introduces children to the religious life and ideas of their community
- provides some understanding of stories, festivals, worship and symbols of the Christian faith in the community
- respects children's rights to uphold their own opinions while providing a broader understanding of this major influence on contemporary Australian culture.

At Weeden Heights Primary School special religious instruction may also be provided separately for students in the Bahá'í faith where accredited religious instructors can be provided by the relevant faith community and are approved by the Minister for Education.

Attendance at special religious instruction classes is not compulsory for students whose parents request that they do not attend.

PARENTAL ADVICE/RESPONSE

ATTENTION PARENTS
Parental Occupation Group

Dear Parents,

Each school budget is calculated by a range of formulas. One formula is based on Parent Occupation. We need to update our Parent Occupation Groups to ensure your children's school receives the budget it is entitled to. One school recently went through this process and as a result received an extra $34,000 in funding! Therefore, it is imperative that we have accurate Parent Occupation information; it may result in your school and therefore your child having access to greater resources for their education. If we have a substantial number of parents in the 'A' category for example, this reduces our funding dramatically. So we want to ensure our records are true and that they reflect the correct occupations of our school's families.

Please read carefully the information below and place your occupational code and occupation next to your name. If you require clarification, please contact the office on 9802 0663.

This information is strictly confidential and is only used to collect aggregate data. Your information is protected by the Privacy Laws.
